THE JOURNEY

We started on our journey by boarding the Sea Strato-liner at the first airport. The stewardess, Sister Rita Maria, read off the names of our first passengers:

Paul Fastabend....a short boy with tall hair and a pet habit of pulling the girls pig-tails;
Don Falleur....a roly-poly lad with hazel eyes and a friendly smile. Bashfully he took his seat behind....
Arthur Owen....a sparkling youth who was always ready to help but never seemed able to break!
Janet Jalbert....a dainty little bashful girl with long pig-tails skip-ped lightly to her seat....
Lorraine Stoner....a happy-go-lucky girl with blond hair and pretty blue eyes.
Charles Morgan....shy and bashful from Missouri with antics that were tactfully hidden....

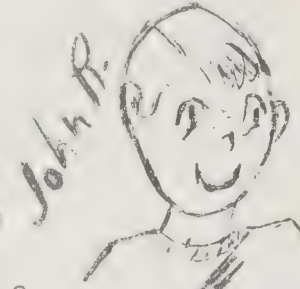

Jeanette

Jim McDermott

Jackie

John R.

Now we have started on our flight to destination airport 2.....
Here we stopped to pick up:

Jeanette Kempf....a cute little blonde whose favorite sport of baseball broke many a school window....
Jim McDermott....a strong lad who loved to flex his muscles by running after the girls with snakes.ooooo

we dropped off Janet and Laurie who joined us at a later date.

The big Stratolineer moved off again and took on a new stewardess Sister Rita Maria, who joined us in the third port. She introduced us to the new passengers:

John Rannells....a shy boy with long hair and a green boy scout suit who tried in vain to recruit us to his team.
Jackie Poell....a chubby little girl with long brown curls and pretty green eyes who hit our class with a bang.
Jim McDermott left our class in peace but only for a short time.

Jackie Poell doesn't seem to have become a saleswoman after all; something changed her mind. She paints for the Ford Car Company. She designed the Zig Zag shape and the red and purple seat cover that is all the rage..... The Chevrolet has offered her a better job that she might take.

That fashion plate over there is no other than Lorraine Stoner. She models all her Texan outfits and ranch house wardrobe all over the United States. But best of all she likes the little ranch in the little state of Texas.

Paul Fastabend is just strolling in. He's the Mayor of Astoria. He tried every city, county and state office to find the most comfortable chair. Since he was named Mayor, Astoria grew to its present population of 1 million and one inhabitants.

Do you hear the mellow roar of pipes? Oh! Oh! Jim McDermott coming in his well preserved '41 Ford.... Of course this isn't Jim's only car. He has a '37 Ford for every day use.. His used car business has really boomed.

Across the smoke filled room we can see John Supersonic Hiestand, the fabulous designer for Boeing Aircraft. His newest the x-14792J376- $\frac{1}{2}$ is really tearing up the air lanes. Rumor has it that John is working up a formula for growing wings on one's back. John flies home to Fleebee Jeebee Islands every evening.

The face looks familiar but not the figure. Could that be Big Jim? They say his multi millionaire wife gives him a million dollars a year to keep the house for her while she sells comic strips for the Astorian Budget. Jim turned down a fabulous offer to play pro football to keep house. No wonder he's just a mere shadow of his former self.

Seventeen! That means that they are all here. Twenty years hasn't changed them much. Listen to them talk!

A TOAST TO THE SENIORS

A gypsy Fortune Teller told us that on May 29th seventeen seniors would stand on the stage at Star of the Sea and receive their diplomas. That will be a night of excitement and joy for each of you. Your high school days are over and you will be starting a different kind of life.

Memories of these high school days will dawn upon you. You will remember your motto, "Onward through life, Upward to God" and how effectively this motto was carried out by each of you. You have gone onward through life in various ways. In the musical field, you have always supplied our recitals with excellent talent. In the athletic field you have turned out some fine athletes who have won honors because of their skill. Recently some of you have won fine scholarships. There are two girls whom we would especially like to congratulate for being chosen Regatta Princesses.

The second part of your motto "Upward to God" has also been carried out by you. You have led fine spiritual lives; you have been active members in our Sodality. You even carried this part of your motto into your prom theme, "Blue Heaven".

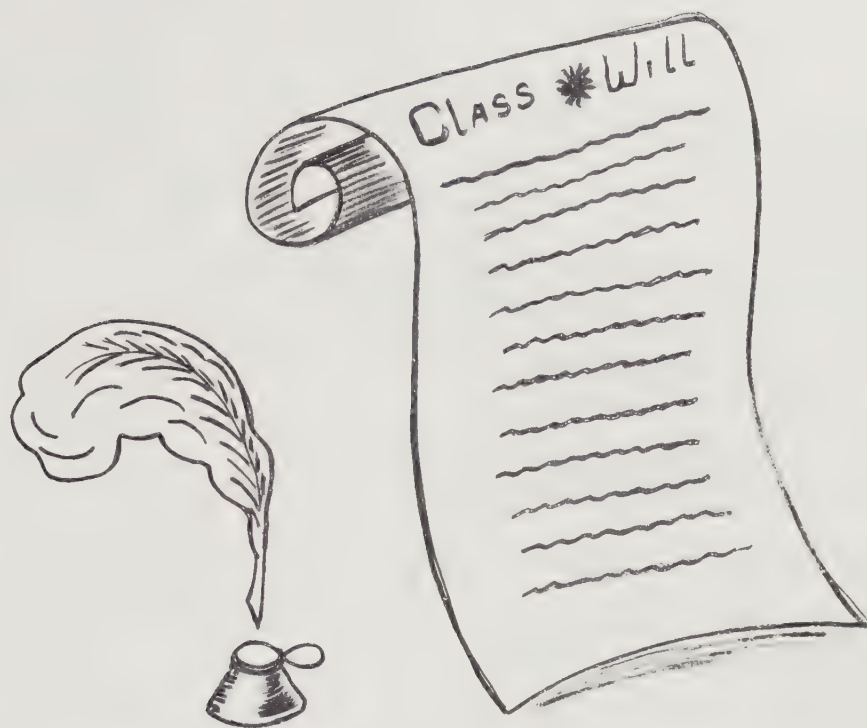

We hope that you will go through life living up to the wonderful name that you have earned for yourselves.

And lastly we hope that you will never forget us and the wonderful times we have shared together.

VALENTINES

We, the Senior Class of 1956, are standing here on this our Commencement Day as many have stood before us. We are leaving behind us the happy and carefree days of childhood. We are leaving also our high school days with their ever cherished memories of the games, dances and get-togethers which meant so much to all of us. We are saying good-bye to the familiar little things; the things that are a definite part of our surroundings as a student: the halls, the classrooms, the lab, the gym, the auditorium, music rooms, intermissions and study halls.

This is our farewell to the Sisters and the Fathers who have always been ready to give help to those in need, whether it be on a spiritual or intellectual level. They have given more of themselves to their students than anyone will ever realize. They are the ones who have given God His supreme position in our lives. They are the ones who have made even the least a little bit greater. Each one of us has benefited greatly by having been taught by them. To them then we leave our sincerest thanks for all they have done for us.

Yes, we are leaving a definite period behind us. Ahead of us lies a new period holding we know not what. We know only that it is one in which we shall be facing tremendous responsibilities no matter what position we may be in. It may be adventurous or dull, successful or a failure, happy or sorrowful, or just the ordinary way of life. Whatever it may be, let it be as a help toward our eternal graduation. We are out on a "Quest for Happiness" ending in

We, the Class of 1956, have donned our graduation caps and gowns, received our diplomas, and ended a period consisting of twelve important years of our lives. These twelve years of education represent many things to each one of us, and yet we have all been bound closely together during this time as we forged on to arrive at this, our graduation night.

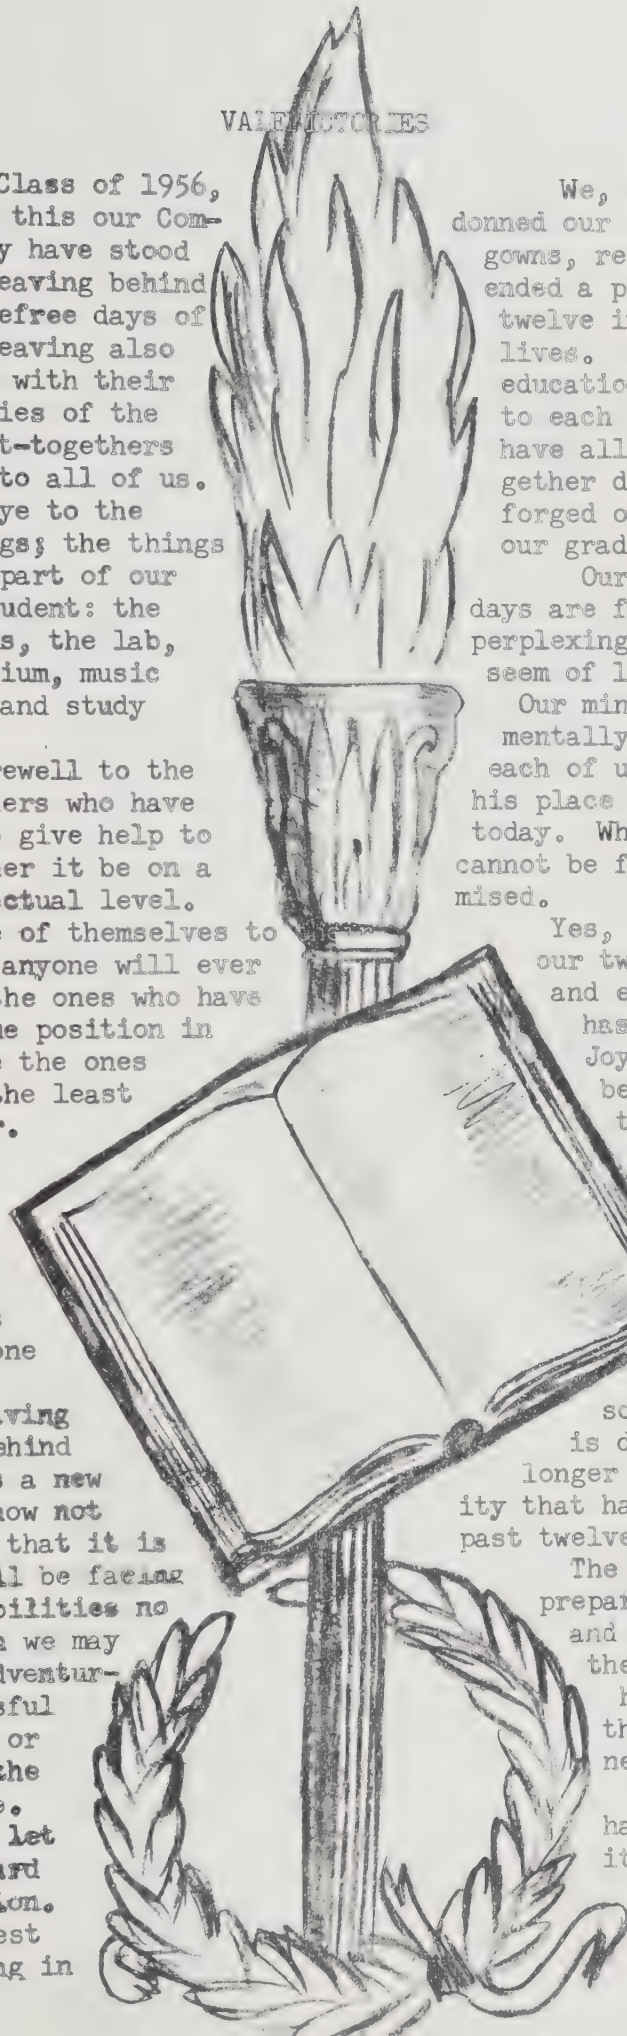

Our carefree grade school days are far behind us and our perplexing high school problems seem of little importance now.

Our minds have been developed mentally and spiritually and each of us will now try to take his place in this modern world of today. Whether or not we succeed cannot be foreseen but only surmised.

Yes, tonight we have ended our twelve years of schooling and each and every one of us has conflicting emotions. Joy is tinged with sadness because we are leaving the things that have meant so much to us in the past. Our happiness is quieted with wonder as we realize the importance of this occasion. Perhaps fear is present for some because the future is darkened because no longer can we feel the security that has enveloped us these past twelve years.

The Sisters have tried to prepare us for this night and for the patience and the understanding they have shown us we owe them a debt which can never be repaid.

To the priests who have cared for our spiritual lives we owe a very special thanks for their help in making our souls strong for the an Eternal Commencement with God. We shall not fail if we recall our school its teachings and what its name stands for: "Star of the Sea." We shall all reach our Eternal Goal if we "look at the Star and call on Mary."

Jeanette Kempf, Valedictorian

for the trials which we face.

Our parents have our love and gratitude for helping us by their love to reach this graduation night.

Tonight we say goodbye to Star of the Sea but always she shall be in our memories as we strive "Onward through life, Upward to God."

Jacqueline Poell, Valedictorian

OUR SPIRITUAL CALENDAR

September 9 MASS OF THE HOLY SPIRIT Offered for a successful school year and to ask God's blessing upon the pupils and the Faculty.

September 23 FAREWELL TO PASTOR The students of the grade school and the high school gathered together in the auditorium to bid goodbye to Father Neugebauer, our pastor, who had been transferred to Sablimity. Our prayers follow him.

October 5 WELCOME TO NEW PASTOR Father Malyszko, our new pastor, from North Bend, came to visit all the students in their class rooms. They all welcomed our pastor and through the past months we have grown fond of him.

October 13 HELP GIVEN TO BASUTOLAND This year the Sodality decided to help out the Holy Names Sisters' mission in Basutoland. Out of the treasury came $10.00 and over to Basutoland it went. Just about a Month later the Sodality received a very nice letter from Sister M. Joan Clarisse thanking us for our gift. The mission appreciated it. We hope to help them in the future.

October 26, 27, 28 RETREAT Our retreat was held much earlier than usual this year because of our retreat master's schedule. We were fortunate to have Father James Carroll of Central Catholic. The students kept in the spirit of the retreat for its duration. All three days were filled with inspiring conferences, visits, rosaries, confessions and meditations. Between the conference Father Carroll was available to anyone for private talks. The retreat certainly was one of the high points of the year and was a spiritual success.

October 31 A LIVING ROSARY took place on this last day of October. The whole service was simple and very beautiful. After the Rosary Benediction was given.

December 19 HONORED VISITORS A special assembly of the entire school honored Mother M. Jeanne of the Visitation and Mother Mary Eleanor, assistant to the Mother General of the Sisters of the Holy Names of Jesus and Mary from Montreal, Canada.

January 5 SENIOR CATHOLIC YOUTH DAY On this eventful day in our lives Father Schubert took all of the seniors to Portland for a visit with the Archbishop. When we first arrived in Portland we went to the Cathedral where Father Shubert offered Mass and then showed us around the Cathedral. We then went to see our Archbishop who took a lot of time with us. We enjoyed meeting him.

January 5 SENIOR CATHOLIC YOUTH DAY After this enjoyable visit we saw the press where the Sentinel is published and then we headed for KOIN TV studios. We spent an interesting time watching a live TV show and then we were shown the technical side of the show. After this we had lunch and a free afternoon. In the evening we all met at the Uptown Bohemian restaurant for an enjoyable meal. Then the long trip back home. This is one day all of the seniors will remember since it was so interesting and since we had so much fun. Oh yes! a tragic incident occurred and marred our day. It was the arrest of Coach Jim Randall. They said that he was going too fast. Oh well, that's life! Anyway we enjoyed the trip.

February 14 SENIOR COMMUNION BREAKFAST The seniors sponsored the first Communion breakfast of the year in the honor of Our Lady Queen of our Hearts. A Valentine theme was the decorations and placecards. Card tables were set up in the shape of a heart and we sat in groups of fours.

May 3 SOPHOMORE COMMUNION BREAKFAST The second breakfast of the year was very nicely served by the sophomores in honor of Our Lady Queen of May. The decorations of the Prom added a nice background for this well planned breakfast.

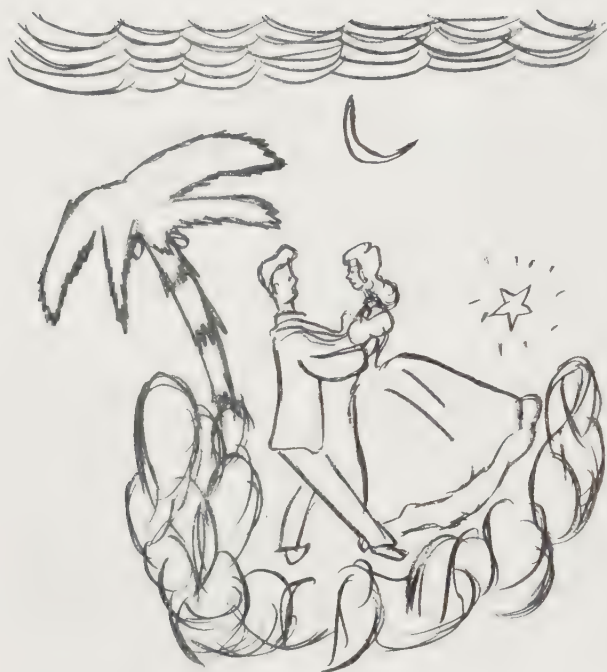

May 24 FRESHMAN COMMUNION BREAKFAST The freshman class chose this feast of Mary, Help of Christians, for the last Communion breakfast. Since the Seniors have chosen Mary under the title of Morning Star as the Patroness of their class, blue and silver stars were used to honor our Lady under this lovely title.

May 27 LIVING ROSARY AND CORONATION On this last Sunday of the month of May the traditional Living Rosary and Coronation Ceremony to honor our Lady, Queen of May, was held in our parish church. The seniors in their graduation caps and gowns, the girls in Choral gowns and white veils, the boys in surplices and cassocks made a beautiful and prayerful picture.

John Hiestand , Prefect, Jeanette Kempf, Vice Prefect, and Monica Angstrom, Secretary, formed the group in the sanctuary for the Coronation ceremony as all sang "Oh Mary, we crown thee with blossoms today."

Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament closed this annual tribute to our Queen and Mother.

PROM

Beautifully dressed girls with their handsome escorts spent the twenty seventh of April dancing in a Tropical Paradise. The island atmosphere was provided by graceful palm trees, pink flamingoes, multi-colored orchids, a bubbling volcano, a graceful ship sailing into the island harbor and a canopy of soft green and brown streamers. The music for the evening was provided by the melodious Four Tones. The grand march was led by Carol Bozanich, Junior Class President, and her escort. Our Mother was enshrined in a pale rose background surrounded by orchids with a reflecting pool at her feet. Punch and cookies were served in the Coconut Hut where Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Falleur presided. This Tropical Paradise will be long remembered by the students as an evening of fun and happiness.

BANQUET

This year Tuesday evening, May 1, was chosen as the date for the Junior-Senior Banquet at Star of the Sea. The tables were decorated with pale green candles, individual favors of miniature palm trees and pink flamingoes carrying out the Tropical Paradise theme. A luscious dinner of fruit cocktail, turkey with all the trimmings, and a desert of apple pie a la mode was prepared by the Junior mothers. After dinner speeches were given by members of the faculty and the student body. To climax a perfect evening a dance was then held until 9:15. Everyone went home full of happy memories of their Junior-Senior Banquet.

MUSICAL NOTES

CONCERT

The musical season was formally introduced on December 11 when the music students participated in the Winter Concert. The program consisted of piano and vocal solos along with numbers presented by the Double Quartet, Orchestra and Choruses. After the concert a beautiful bouquet of red roses was presented to Sister Vida Maria in appreciation for her wonderful and patient work with the students which made all the concerts a musical success.

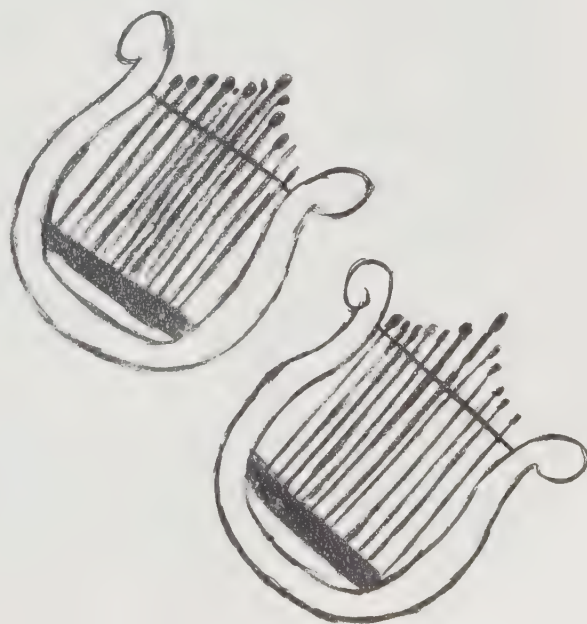

SENIOR CONCERT

An informal Senior Concert was held on May 16 for the mothers of the students. Ed Chase acted as Master of Ceremonies and the musical concert began with the Senior Class singing "You are a Wonderful Mother". Vocal presentations, piano solos and the orchestra were featured during the evening. One of the highlights of the evening was the Double Quartet who sang three songs along with a very clever encore featuring Ed Chase and John Hiestand. After the concert coffee and cake was served to the parents by the students. This farewell concert of the Seniors placed the finishing touches on the musical season of Star of the Sea.

QUILISMA CLUB DINNER DANCE

The annual Quilisma Club Dinner Dance was held this year at the John Jacob Astor Hotel on May 24. A delicious dinner was served to the Quilisma Girls and the Schola Boys and after the dinner the remainder of the students joined them for a most enjoyable evening of dancing.

Thank you, Father Malyzsko and Father Schubert for this treat!

OPERETTA

This year on April 19-20 the custom of having a musical Operetta was revised by the High School Students when they presented their version of The Fortune Teller by Victor Herbert at the Viking Theater. This two day success was happily received by the public and the theater was filled to capacity both nights. People marveled at the beautiful lilting voice of the Gypsy Fortune Teller, Janet Jalbert, and enjoyed the dashing and swashbuckling Count Berezowski, Jim Von Seggern. Handsome Lieutenant Ladislaus played by John Hiestand and the lovely Ballerina, Jeanette Kempf, presented to the audience the more romantic moments of the Operetta. Ed Chase skillfully directed his dainty, dancing ballerinas in the more intricate steps of the Ballet as he tiptoed his way into the audience's memories. The sneaky Boris, Don Falleur, with his crafty wife Vanika, Carol Bosshart, provided the audience with the more mysterious moments. Handsome Hussar Officers, Guests and the beautiful singing of the Chorouses completed the Operetta's cast. Thanks to the boys who acted as stage managers and the prompters who helped to make the Operetta run so smoothly. A very special thanks to Sister Vida Maria and Sister Clarita Mary whose patience, perseverance and good humor made the Operetta such an enjoyable success.

PEP CLUB TEA

The Pep Club Tea to welcome the new members was held at the Convent garden on May 8 at 2:30 in the afternoon. An informal meeting was held before the tea; the New Pep Club Girl of the year was chosen. This award went to Mary Pat Olsen for her outstanding service during the year. The tea was then held with the Pep Club Girl, Mary Pat Olsen, and new members as special guests. The new members of the Pep Club are: Anita Marincovich, Lorraine Stoner, Carllyn Hughes, Karen Van Volkinburg, Nancy Kerbel, Betty Morris, Patty Reynolds, Judy Flynn, Barbara Schalk, Katherine Hubbell, Rita Thonnes, Lorretta Schinderle, and Jeannette Marincovich.

ALL STATER

We are proud of our first all-state football player who was elected to play in the all star game at Pendleton in late August. This big boy of two hundred and forty pounds powered his way through many a line to smother the ball carrier. He was commonly called the "Semi" of the team. Congratulations, Jim, we are proud of you! Keep the name of the school alive at Pendleton.

Also there were two from the team that received honorable mention for the game: Ed Chase, quarter back; and Don Falleur, tackle. Congratulations, Ed and Don!

OUTSTANDING PLAYER AWARDS

The members of the team voted for the outstanding football player of the season. The award went to the all state "Big Jim" who was very deserving of the award.

Next year's team will be a fast break away team with more experience than this year's team. They will surely miss the graduating seniors who were the backbone of the team. The graduating seniors are:

Jim Von Seggern
Ed Chase
Don Falleur
Dan Hess
Art Owens
Charles Morgan
Jim McDermott

But the Sophmores' and Juniors' experience should pay off with Jim Schalk, Ivan, Honeychurch, Bonzanti and Mike Brunmeier back for line duty. The back-field will include George, Larry, Don and Bill. With this team the record should be most impressive with the guidance of "Rocky Randall" at the helm.

Though we didn't have many victories we learned to be good sports while losing, and when we won we knew we had won in a fair manner.

BANQUETS

We were honored by two banquets this year; the first one was given by the Parent Club and Knights. Twenty football letters and twelve basketball letters were given out by coach, Jim Randall. The main speaker was Don Malarkey who told us how important sports are to our lives. The student body presented a watch to the coach in appreciation for all his efforts and hard work.

At the Kiwanas' banquet the teams of the lower Columbia Region; Knappa, Astoria and Star of the Sea were honored with a banquet. After the awards, a movie was shown of the world series.

TROPHIES

Ed Chase received two trophies for his play in basketball; one for his accuracy at the foul line, and the other for his defensive ability.

Don Falleur received the Kiwanas' inspirational player award which resulted from a team vote.

CHEERLEADERS

The cheerleaders did a wonderful job this year in keeping the spirit going behing the team. Congratulations for a grand job well done.

Thanks, too, to the Pep Club!

Cheerleaders:

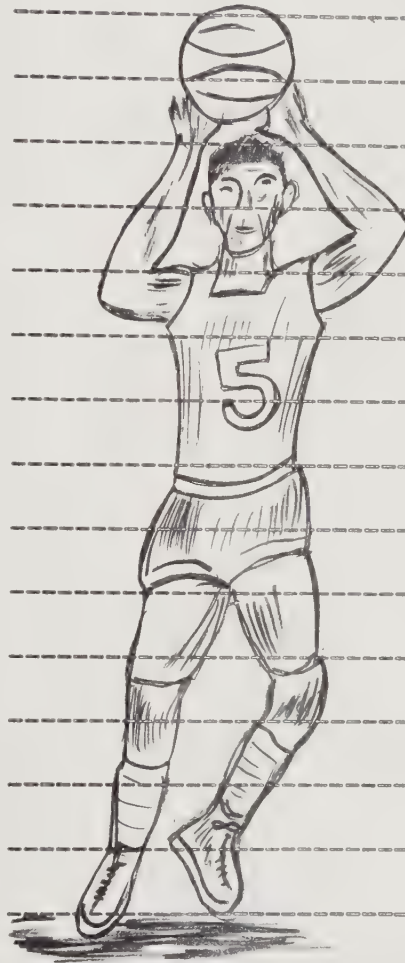

Jeanette Kempf, Cheer Queen
Jackie Poell
Carol Bosshart
Elmyrna Von Seggern

BASKETBALL

The basketball season got under way on December first after about three weeks of practice on fundamentals in dribbling, shooting and passing skills.

THE J.V.'s

Although the seniors again were the backbone of the team, their loss should not be felt as heavily in basketball as it will in football because of the great Star J.V.'s Team which lost only two games in the entire year. These players who played an important part in their success should make a very strong basketball team next year. These players are:

Greg Moore
Jim Hubbell
Tom Hiestand
Jim Reilly
Bill Hammer

These players along with the remaining varsity players, Brunmeier and Honey church should be hard to beat.

THANKS

We would like to thank a few of the people who have made sports possible here: Charles Turina, the Athletic Board, those who took us to the games; the people of the Parish who helped the Athletic Board financially; the Sisters and the Priests for their interest; Bob Bonzanti for his accurate and consistent keeping of the books.

And most of all Jim Randall whom all the seniors will surely miss. He has worked hard with everyone of the players, though at some times we all know it must have looked hopeless to him. Thanks for a great job, Coach. We appreciate you very much, and we will remember you as the greatest Coach ever. Thanks again for a big job well done.

TRIBUTE

One of the finest players ever to come out of Star of the Sea school is the little guard Ed Chase who made any coach wish he were on his team. Ed could hold his own with the best of them and could usually pass them also. He was an all-state player who would have made it if he had his chance. He had a 15 point average this year against much bigger men.
